

A smiling family consisting of a mother, a father, two young girls, and a young boy. The mother is holding a large brown paper bag filled with fresh produce like apples, oranges, and leafy greens. One girl is holding a bright green apple, another is holding a bottle of orange juice. The young boy is holding a crushed metal tin can. The father is leaning against a cardboard box that features standard recycling symbols, including a recycling triangle, a glass, and an umbrella. The entire scene is set against a plain white background, emphasizing the family and the items they are holding.
